

Craftsmanship That Honors a Legacy of Service

Construction Company

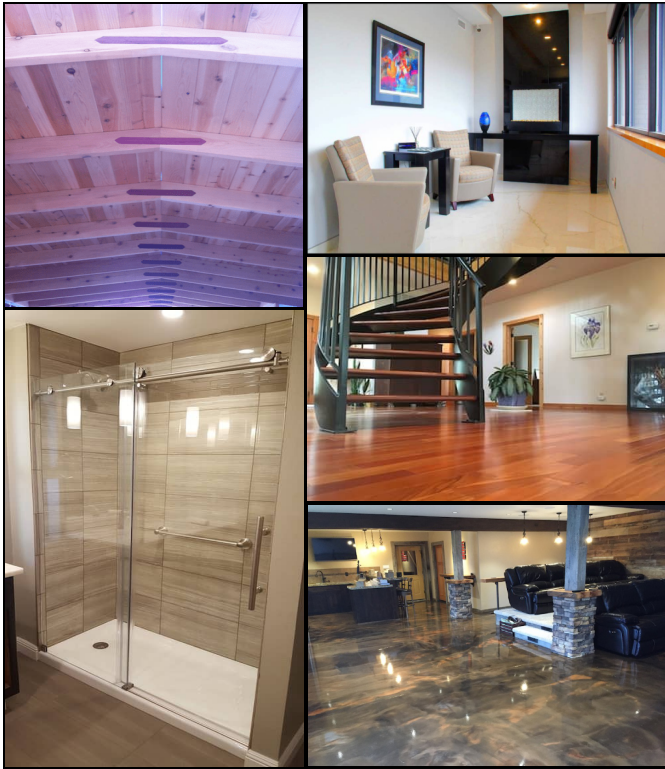

Home • Remodeling • Commercial

When you hire Girard Builders, you're not just getting a contractor.

You're securing a partner whose work ethic was forged in the most demanding environments.

Josh Girard earned distinguished service awards from the Army, Navy, and Marines for his contracting services.

15 Years
of Award-Winning Construction Expertise

*"Josh built my house after a the first contractor left unexpectedly
He also build a customized houseboat for me.
He has metal framing experience and I needed that on the houseboat.
On both projects I found Josh to be flexible and willing to adapt. He did an excellent design and build with each project. If I do any further construction projects in the future I will be sure to use his services again."*
